INTRODUCTION

This Code of Conduct helps to ensure compliance with legal requirements and business ethos and values. All are expected to read and understand this Code of Conduct, uphold these standards in day-to-day activities, comply with all applicable policies and procedures in letter as well as in spirit, and ensure that all concerned are aware of, understand and adhere to these standards.

The SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (“Listing Regulations, 2015”) stipulates that the Board of Directors of the Company shall lay down a code of conduct for all Board members and Senior Management personnel of the Company. Hence, certain clauses of this Code require specific compliance by only the Board members and Senior Management Personnel of the Company.

We are committed to continuously reviewing and updating our policies and procedures. Therefore, this Code of Conduct is subject to modification. The Board may update the code from time to time. In case of further clarifications, please contact any person from the Secretarial Department.

COMPLIANCE IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

As a Board member and/ or an employee, your responsibility is to respect and adhere to this Code of Conduct. Many of these practices reflect legal or regulatory requirements. Non-compliance of these laws and regulations can create significant liability for the Company, its directors, officers, and other employees. You should report such non-compliance, if any, to the Board of Directors or Company Secretary. You may also show your concerns for this purpose by sending a letter to the Board of Directors/ Secretary. Non-compliance of the Code of Conduct can lead to disciplinary action including termination.

DEFINITIONS

“Act” means Companies Act, 2013 read with rules framed thereunder, as amended from time to time.

Any term(s) not defined hereinabove shall have the same meaning as assigned to such term(s) in the Act and / or the Listing Regulations, 2015 or any other applicable law or regulation.

1. Protecting the Company's Confidential Information

The Company's confidential information is a valuable asset. It includes but not limited to Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Research & Development Information, names and lists of customers, dealers, employees, any undisclosed financial information, process flow charts and recipes of its products, working plans of the Company, etc. All confidential information must be used for Company business purposes only with proper authorization. This responsibility includes the safeguarding, securing and proper disposal of confidential information in accordance with the Company's policy on Maintaining and Managing Records set forth in Policy and other Procedure Manual. This obligation also extends to confidential information of third parties, which the Company has rightfully received under Non-Disclosure Agreements.

2. Conflicts of Interest

Directors and employees shall not engage in any business, relationship or activity, which may be in conflict with the interest of the Company. Notwithstanding anything contain herein, an Independent Director / Non-Executive Director shall have the full liberty to pursue his / her independent professional / business / employment activities.

When such situation arises, the concern person should immediately and fully disclose the relevant circumstances to the immediate supervisor. In case of Board Members, the Board should be informed about such circumstances. Such transaction should be entered only after the intimation / approval of the Board of Directors.

What constitutes conflict of interest?

A conflict of interest exists where the interests or benefits of one person or entity in which he is interested, conflict with the interests or benefits of the Company.

For Example:

Outside Directorships. It is a conflict of interest to serve as a director of any company that competes with the Company. Our policy requires that you obtain prior approval from the Company's Board of Directors before accepting a directorship.

Business Interests. If you or any of your associates enter into any sort of business arrangement/ investments in a Company, customer, supplier, developer or competitor, you must ensure that the arrangement/ investment does not conflict/ compete your duties and responsibilities towards the Company. In such circumstances, you should obtain prior approval of the Board of Directors of the Company. Many factors should be considered in determining whether a conflict exists, including the size and nature of the arrangement/ investment; your ability to influence the Company's decisions; your access to confidential information of the Company or of the other company; and the nature of the relationship between the Company and the other company.

Related Parties. All related party transactions should be done after complying with Sections 184, 188 and 189 of the Act, Listing Regulations, 2015, relevant accounting standards and other applicable laws.

The Company's Audit Committee must review and approve such related party transactions. The Company must report all such material related party transactions as required under the Act, Listing Regulations, 2015, relevant accounting standards and other applicable laws, . Any dealings with a related party must be conducted in such a way that the interest of the Company is not jeopardized.
